REPORT NO.

Jorge Fernandez Stoll, who was appointed on 7 November 1948 as Advisor to the President of Peru's Military Junta, is regarded by the Peruvian Communists as a great sympathizer of the Party who has done them many favors in the past. He is not known to be a registered and enrolled member of the Party at present, however. [REDACTED] Comment. Fernandez was one of five delegates sent by the Peruvian Government to attend the congress of International Labor Organization in Philadelphia in April 1944. At that time, he was reported to be an opportunist, shrewd, unscrupulous, and extremely ambitious. He maintained a balance in his relations between capital and labor, and managed not to antagonize either side. It was said, however, that, although considered a representative of the working class in several disputes, he was open to bribery by Government officials.)
